HOUSE BILL No. 1121

DIGEST OF HB 1121 (Updated January 14, 2014 11:48 am - DI 84)

Citations Affected: IC 4-21.5; IC 4-22.

Synopsis: Administrative adjudication. Authorizes an agency to share an administrative law judge with another agency. Requires an agency to adopt rules establishing a code of judicial conduct for administrative law judges. Requires that an administrative law judge who is not the ultimate authority or a member of the ultimate authority must be an attorney licensed to practice law in Indiana. Prohibits the ultimate authority from communicating with certain persons, including: (1) a party; (2) a person with an interest in the outcome; or (3) a person who presided at an earlier stage of the proceeding; concerning a matter pending before or adjudicated by an administrative law judge if there is a reasonable likelihood that the ultimate authority will be called upon to review or issue a final order with respect to the matter. Specifies when a party has standing to obtain judicial review of an agency action. Requires that an agency's rulemaking docket must contain certain additional information.

Effective: July 1, 2014.

HOUSE BILL No. 1121

A BILL FOR AN ACT to amend the Indiana Code concerning state offices and administration.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

1 SECTION 1. IC 4-21.5-3-8.5 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA
2 CODE AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS
3 [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2014]: Sec. 8.5. (a) An agency may share an
4 administrative law judge with another agency:

5 (1) to avoid bias, prejudice, interest in the outcome, or
6 another conflict of interest;

7 (2) if a party requests a change of administrative law judge;

8 (3) to ease scheduling difficulties; or

9 (4) for another good cause.

10 An agency may adopt rules under IC 4-22-2 to implement this
11 subsection.

12 (b) An agency shall adopt rules under IC 4-22-2 establishing a
13 code of judicial conduct for administrative law judges, including an
14 ultimate authority acting as an administrative law judge.

15 (c) To the extent practicable, an administrative law judge must
16 have expertise in the area of law being adjudicated.

HB 1121—LS 6943/DI 106

SECTION 2. IC 4-21.5-3-9 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2014]: Sec. 9. (a) Except to the extent that a statute other than this article limits an agency's discretion to select an administrative law judge, the ultimate authority for an agency may:

- (1) act as an administrative law judge;
- (2) designate one (1) or more members of the ultimate authority (if the ultimate authority is a panel of individuals) to act as an administrative law judge; or
- (3) designate one (1) or more ~~other individuals~~ attorneys licensed to practice law in Indiana, not necessarily employees of the agency, to act as an administrative law judge.

A designation under subdivision (2) or (3) may be made in advance of the commencement of any particular proceeding for a generally described class of proceedings or may be made for a particular proceeding. A general designation may provide procedures for the assignment of designated individuals to particular proceedings.

(b) An agency may not knowingly assign an individual to serve alone or with others as an administrative law judge who is subject to disqualification under this chapter.

(c) If the judge believes that the judge's impartiality might reasonably be questioned, or believes that the judge's personal bias, prejudice, or knowledge of a disputed evidentiary fact might influence the decision, an individual assigned to serve alone or with others as an administrative law judge shall:

- (1) withdraw as the administrative law judge; or
- (2) inform the parties of the potential basis for disqualification, place a brief statement of this basis on the record of the proceeding, and allow the parties an opportunity to petition for disqualification under subsection (d).

(d) Any party to a proceeding may petition for the disqualification of an individual serving alone or with others as an administrative law judge upon discovering facts establishing grounds for disqualification under this chapter. The administrative law judge assigned to the proceeding shall determine whether to grant the petition, stating facts and reasons for the determination. If the administrative law judge ruling on the disqualification issue is not the ultimate authority for the agency, the party petitioning for disqualification may petition the ultimate authority in writing for review of the ruling within ten (10) days after notice of the ruling is served. The ultimate authority shall conduct proceedings described by section 28 of this chapter to review the petition and affirm, modify, or dissolve the ruling within thirty (30)

1 days after the petition is filed. A determination by the ultimate
 2 authority under this subsection is a final order subject to judicial review
 3 under IC 4-21.5-5.

4 (e) If a substitute is required for an administrative law judge who is
 5 disqualified or becomes unavailable for any other reason, the substitute
 6 must be appointed in accordance with subsection (a).

7 (f) Any action taken by a duly appointed substitute for a disqualified
 8 or unavailable administrative law judge is as effective as if taken by the 9 latter.

10 (g) If there is a reasonable likelihood that the ultimate authority
 11 will be called upon to:

12 (1) review; or

13 (2) issue a final order with respect to;

14 a matter pending before or adjudicated by an administrative law
 15 judge, the provisions of section 11 of this chapter that apply to an 16 administrative law judge or to a person communicating with an
 17 administrative law judge apply to a member of the ultimate
 18 authority and to a person communicating with a member of the 19 ultimate authority.

20 SECTION 3. IC 4-21.5-3-24 IS AMENDED TO READ AS 21 FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2014]: Sec. 24. (a) At any stage of 22 a proceeding, if a party fails to:

23 (1) satisfy the requirements of section 7(a) of this chapter;

24 (2) file a responsive pleading required by statute or rule;

25 ~~(2)~~ (3) attend or participate in a prehearing conference, hearing,
 26 or other stage of the proceeding; or

27 ~~(3)~~ (4) take action on a matter for a period of sixty (60) days, if
 28 the party is responsible for taking the action;

29 the administrative law judge may serve upon all parties written notice
 30 of a proposed default or dismissal order, including a statement of the 31 grounds.

32 (b) Within seven (7) days after service of a proposed default or 33 dismissal order, the party against whom it was issued may file a written 34 motion requesting that the proposed default order not be imposed and
 35 stating the grounds relied upon. During the time within which a party
 36 may file a written motion under this subsection, the administrative law
 37 judge may adjourn the proceedings or conduct them without the 38 participation of the party against whom a proposed default order was 39 issued, having due regard for the interest of justice and the orderly and 40 prompt conduct of the proceedings.

41 (c) If the party has failed to file a written motion under subsection
 42 (b), the administrative law judge shall issue the default or dismissal

order. If the party has filed a written motion under subsection (b), the administrative law judge may either enter the order or refuse to enter the order.

(d) After issuing a default order, the administrative law judge shall conduct any further proceedings necessary to complete the proceeding without the participation of the party in default and shall determine all issues in the adjudication, including those affecting the defaulting party. The administrative law judge may conduct proceedings in accordance with section 23 of this chapter to resolve any issue of fact.

SECTION 4. IC 4-21.5-5-3, AS AMENDED BY P.L.219-2007, SECTION 5, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2014]: Sec. 3. (a) The following have standing to obtain judicial review of an agency action:

(1) A person to whom the final agency action is specifically directed.

(2) A person who was a party to the ~~agency~~ proceedings of the ultimate authority that led to the final agency action, including the agency whose order was under review in the proceeding.

(3) A person eligible for standing under a law applicable to the final agency action.

(4) A person otherwise aggrieved or adversely affected by the final agency action.

(b) A person has standing under subsection (a)(4) only if:

(1) the final agency action has prejudiced or is likely to prejudice the interests of the person;

(2) the person:

(A) was eligible for an initial notice of an order or proceeding under this article, was not notified of the order or proceeding in substantial compliance with this article, and did not have actual notice of the order or proceeding before the last date in the proceeding that the person could object or otherwise intervene to contest the agency action; or

(B) was qualified to intervene to contest an agency action under IC 4-21.5-3-21(a), petitioned for intervention in the proceeding, and was denied party status;

(3) the person's asserted interests are among those that the agency was required to consider when it engaged in the agency action challenged; and

(4) a judgment in favor of the person would substantially eliminate or redress the prejudice to the person caused or likely to be caused by the final agency action.

SECTION 5. IC 4-22-2-22.5, AS ADDED BY P.L.152-2012,

SECTION 6, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2014]: Sec. 22.5. (a) This section applies to a rule that an agency intends to adopt under sections 24 through 36 of this chapter.

(b) As used in this section, "pending rulemaking action" means any rulemaking action in which:

(1) either:

(A) a notice of intent has been published under section 23 of this chapter; or

(B) a rulemaking action has been commenced under IC 13-14-9; and

(2) the rule has not become effective under section 36 of this chapter.

(c) Each agency shall maintain a current rulemaking docket that is indexed.

~~(c)~~ (d) A current rulemaking docket must list each pending rulemaking ~~proceeding~~ action. The docket must state or contain:

(1) the subject matter of the proposed rule;

(2) notices related to the proposed rule, or links to the Indiana Register where these notices may be viewed;

(3) how comments may be made;

(4) the time within which comments may be made;

(5) where comments and the agency's written response to those comments may be inspected;

(6) ~~requests for a the date, time, and place where a public hearing required under:~~

(A) section 26 of this chapter; or

(B) IC 13-14-9;

will be held;

~~(7) appropriate information about a public hearing, if any, including the names of the persons making the request;~~

~~(8) (7) a description of relevant scientific and technical findings related to the proposed rule, if applicable; and~~

~~(9) (8) a reasonable estimate of the timetable for action, updated periodically as circumstances change, if necessary.~~

~~(d)~~ (e) The agency shall maintain the rulemaking docket on the agency's Internet web site. The information must be in an open format that can be easily searched and downloaded. Access to the docket shall, to the extent feasible and permitted by law, provide an opportunity for public comment on the pertinent parts of the rulemaking docket, including relevant scientific and technical findings. Upon request, the agency shall provide a written rulemaking docket.
